

HUNGARIAN DEFENCE FORCES

MILITARY TRAINING CENTRE

INTERNATIONAL COURSES IN 2026

International Military Observers' Course

/IMOC/

13-30 April, 2026 (47. IMOC)

28 September- 16 October, 2026 (48. IMOC)

Subject: International Military Observers' Course (UN-accredited course)

Aim: to train personnel planned to be deployed in international peacekeeping operations

Method: theoretical and practical training

Participants: candidates from UN member states

Maximum number of students: 30

Contents:

- Basics of UN peace operations: principles, core values and competencies; Security Council mandates; legal framework; human rights; protection of civilians; women, peace and security; child protection; sexual exploitation and abuse; working as one in the mission; working with mission partners; conduct and discipline; safety and security; DDR processes; UN SOPs for reporting; observation post duties; air reconnaissance exercise
- General military training: basic UNMO skills; UN voice procedures; cultural awareness; road safety; basic UN verification and investigation techniques; mine awareness; verification of minefields, explosive remnants of war and crater analysis; patrol techniques; weapons, vehicles and equipment recognition; foreign armies; map reading, orientation and GPS skills
- First aid and psychological training: stress management, behaviour in hostage situations, administering first aid, hygiene, infection prevention, climate risks, vaccinations
- Media skills: media handling in the field of operations, theoretical and practical sessions
- CIMIC skills: liaison activities, interrogation techniques, mediation and negotiation skills, situational practice sessions
- Training methodology: presentation skills, preparation and delivery of presentations

Peace Support Operations Cooperation Course

/PSOCC/

09-20 November, 2026 (10. PSOCC)

Subject: Peace Support Operations Cooperation Course

Aim: to prepare key personnel of peace operation contingents and international staff positions for cooperation, coordination and liaison tasks

Method: a combination of theoretical and practical sessions with the support of international presenters, guest speakers and role-players

Participants: officers and NCOs, liaison officers

Maximum number of students: 30

Contents:

- Basics of UN, NATO, EU and AU crisis management; cooperation with non-military partners, governmental and non-governmental organisations present in the theatre of operations (IOs, GOs, NGOs)
- Presentation skills; mediation and negotiation skills; organising and conducting meetings; use of language assistants; information management; SOPs for reporting; situational practice sessions
- Media handling in the field of operations; theoretical and practical sessions

Contacts

Address:

5000 Szolnok, Széchenyi krt. 24.

Phone:

(+36)-56-505-115

Fax:

(+36)-56-505-114

E-mail:

mh.ktk@mil.hu

Web:

www.pstc.honvedseg.hu

Facebook:

MH Katonai Továbbképző Központ-HDF MTC

GPS:

47.194874 20.173495

